VOL. VI. NO. 125.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS.

BROOKLYN HANDICAP TODAY.

This afternoon the Brooklyn Handicap will be contested by the equine stars of the day. Always a race of commanding interest, it lacks nothing this year in comparison with years gone. Such horses as Ethelbert, Jean Beraud, Imp, Box, Batten, and others of today's field are fully as great in point of speed, endurance and ability to successfully carry high weights as the horses that contended for the honors of Brooklyn handicaps already a part of turf history.

Eighteen horses are carded to go to the post this afternoon. Their names, weights and probable riders are as follows. The Kentuckian being a doubtful starter:

Horses.	A.	Rider.	Wt.
Imp.	6	Clawson	128
Ethelbert	4	Maher	127
Jean Beraud	4	Turner	127
Batten	4	Winkfield	124
Kinley Mack	4	McCue	122
Prince McClurg	4	Hamilton	122
Box	6	O'Connor	118
Approval	4	Spencer	114
Rafaello	4	Jenkins	113
Lothario	4	Shaw	107
The Kentuckian	4	Littlefield	106
Latson	5	T Burns	103
Wait Not	4	J Slack	100
Knight of the Garter	3	Mitchell	98
Herbert	3	Henry	93
Strathconan	4	Rauch	90
Petruchio	3

Generally the candidates had their trials Wednesday, concerning which and other items of gossip about the big race a New York special says: "At Sheephead Bay the following trials were noted:

"Perry Belmont's Ethelbert was sent the distance in 2:10 $\frac{1}{2}$, covering the first mile in 1:41 $\frac{1}{2}$.

"Harness & Brossman's famous black mare Imp worked the distance in 2:10 $\frac{1}{2}$.

"W. C. Whitney's Jean Beraud worked a mile and a quarter well within himself in 2:11 $\frac{1}{2}$.

"Low Elmore's Strathconan covered the route in 2:12 $\frac{1}{2}$ and P. H. McCarren's Survivor in 2:09 $\frac{1}{2}$.

"Over at Gravesend the horses were timed as follows: Captain Sam Brown's Batten worked in 2:10 $\frac{1}{2}$. M. Murphy's Rafaello was tried before daylight and timed with lanterns. His time for the distance was 2:09 $\frac{1}{2}$. J. Carr's Wait Not worked the distance in 2:09 $\frac{1}{2}$, and W. Showalter's Box went the same distance, sulkily, in 2:18.

"If the Brooklyn were this year as it used to be, the first great race of the season, old Imp, who has been the favorite in the winter books, would go to the post the choice on Saturday. Imp's defeats at Washington and Aqueduct have turned her fickle admirers of last season away, and Ethelbert is the popular horse now.

"He will go to the post a strong favorite, and he deserves the distinction. His success in the Metropolitan Handicap was the best treat, public or private, that any Brooklyn Handicap candidate has had this year. He beat many of the horses that he will have to meet on Saturday without the least effort in an honestly run race, and there is no reason to suppose that he cannot do it at the longer distance. He was running away from his field at the finish in the Metropolitan, and if the distance had been a mile and a quarter his margin of victory would have been wider.

"Ethelbert has not raced since he won the Metropolitan, but his failure to appear under silks has not been due to a falling away from the high standard of excellence he showed in the great Morris Park race. His dates were all in handicaps, and Walter S. Vosburg, the official weight adjuster of the Jockey Club, put more on his back than Perry Belmont cared to have him shoulder. Mr. Belmont was right. To have run Ethelbert under 140 pounds in short sprints at Morris Park would have imperiled his whole career.

"Ethelbert's most formidable rival on public form is Rafaello. The Farandole colt was run away back at the finish of the Metropolitan, but twice since the opening day at Morris Park he has picked up 125 pounds and won overnight handicaps from pretty shifty performers, to whom he was making big concessions in weight.

"Rafaello, like Banastar, the other great son of Farandole, is vastly better as a four-year-old than he was in his three-year-old season. He has broadened and thickened wonderfully and looks as well as Ethelbert himself. His action is perfect; he has a great turn of speed, and there is no horse hereabout that can be placed more easily. His sluggishness in the early part of his races will subject him to the danger of being bumped about on Saturday, but his indomitable pluck and the speed that he has always shown at the end of a race will offset this disadvantage.

"The Brooklyn Handicap is generally a hard-run race from flagfall to finish, and the leaders in the early part of it are generally pretty tired by the time they get to the upper turn. If Rafaello is anywhere near the leader at that stage, no matter who the leader may be, there will be trouble. It must not be forgotten that he beat Ethelbert at a difference of ten pounds against the Eothen colt, in a mile race at Morris Park last fall, by putting up a more courageous finish. On Saturday Ethelbert will have to give him thirteen pounds and the extra quarter is greatly in his favor.

"Another horse that showed great form at Morris Park is The Kentuckian. The Pirate of Penzance colt picked up 106 pounds on May 14 and stepped off the Withers mile in 1:39 $\frac{1}{2}$, equaling the track record established by Fili-grane in the running of the Metropolitan Handicap last year. The most impressive part of this performance was that he ran the last three furlongs of this race in :36 $\frac{1}{2}$ and the last furlong in :12 flat, and seemed to have something in reserve at that.

"The Kentuckian has apparently returned to his best 2-year-old form. Mr. Simms believes his chances of success on Saturday to be very good. He has not raced since this victory, which, by the way, was over Approval and Wait Not, also Brooklyn eligibles, but he is in fine fettle.

Approval is in good shape himself. His best public trial for the Brooklyn was a mile in 1:41 $\frac{1}{2}$, on the second day of the Westchester meeting.

"Wait Not's good races were run at Aqueduct. He took up 118 and 126 pounds and beat good fields at one mile and seventy yards during the Queens County Jockey Club's spring session.

In spite of these good races, the shrewdest judges do not believe that either Wait Not or Approval has much of a chance in the Brooklyn. They seem to lack the class that crack handicap horses ought to possess.

"Box has run three times this season. He won the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct, took place money in the Metropolitan before Imp, and was beaten by Lothario and Charentus on May 8. This defeat should not be held against the colt. He had just come out of a hard race, and was asked to make a concession of twenty-six pounds to Lothario, and twelve to Charentus. He has had time to freshen up since that defeat, and get back into condition. Under an impost of 118 pounds, he will be a dangerous horse on Saturday.

"Lothario will not do. He covered a mile in 1:40 $\frac{1}{2}$ when he beat Box and Charentus, but it was the first creditable race that he had run for many months and he is not a repeater.

"The doubtless opponents of Ethelbert, Rafaello, The Kentuckian and Box will have on Saturday will come from the ranks of the, as yet, publicly untried horses. Four of these will be dangerous, if their recent private trials are worth anything. They are Batten, Kinley Mack, Jean Beraud and Admirer.

"Batten's chances look the poorest just now. Not that the colt lacks class or that his weight is too great. The difficulty is that Batten will not have been east a full week when the Brooklyn Handicap is run and will not have had time to recover from the ill effects incident to his long trip on the cars or to become accustomed to the change of climate and water.

"Kinley Mack, Admirer and Jean Beraud wintered at Louisville, but they came east before the Morris Park meeting began and are thoroughly acclimated. They have been working at Sheephead Bay under the direction of the veteran Mississippi turfman, Peter Wimmer, and have done wonders.

"Jean Beraud must be at his best or William C. Whitney would not be so anxious to match him with Ethelbert. The Brooklyn Handicap, however, will be a fair test of the relative merits of Ethelbert and Jean Beraud as race horses, and perhaps one side or the other will not want a match after the Brooklyn is over.

STARTER BROWN REINSTATED.

"Curley" Brown, who was ruled off the turf at the Newport track last fall, was reinstated Thursday by the Appeals Committee of the American Turf Congress. An official announcement to that effect was promulgated by Secretary Hopper. The Appeals Committee consists of Colonel E. F. Clay, of Lexington; Judge George G. Perkins, of Covington, and Mr. George J. Long, of Louisville. There are no more reputable gentlemen—men of higher social and business standing in the communities in which they live—than the trio named, and it cannot even be imagined that they or any one of them has been unduly influenced by friends of the ex-starter in the action which they have taken in the matter. The fact that he was reinstated must be taken as evidence that the Appeals Committee considered that he had been sufficiently punished for the offence which got him into trouble. The committee did not act hastily in the matter. On the contrary, they considered the case very fully and carefully. They reviewed all the evidence that was brought before the directors of the Queen City Jockey Club, on which the ex-starter was ruled off, and also that which was offered when the matter was up before the legal authorities of Campbell county, and after considering it all they concluded that Brown had been sufficiently punished, the light sentence that had been imposed by the court having no little weight in influencing them in this decision. Accordingly, they reinstated him. Their action removes all the disabilities against the ex-starter, and he is once more eligible not only to visit any track under Turf Congress or Jockey Club regulations, but also to race horses in his own name over any of them. "Curley," by his excellent work when starter at Newport, and by honest methods in his racing, made many friends around Cincinnati, and his restoration to good standing on the turf will be received with much pleasure by them. He will not race his horses in the west. In fact, he left the city last night for Sheephead Bay, and the horses of his string, which are now at Louisville, will be sent on there in the next few days.

Wedderstrand, the stable jockey, who is now riding at Newport under the direction of J. J. McCafferty, will remain here until Monday night to fill engagements at Latonia on the opening day of the meeting at the Kenton County track, when he will go east to join his stable.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

LAKESIDE RACING.

If the old saying, "before the storm comes the calm," still holds good, there certainly should be a big crowd at Lakeside this afternoon and the racing should be of the rousing kind. Yesterday no one but the regulars were on hand, the racing was tame, and, everything considered, it was one of the quietest days in the history of the Lakeside track.

There was one form reversal to break the monotony, and Jockey Miller, seeing how quiet things were on all sides, took a nap while riding Battus, the even money favorite in the fifth race, allowing Benson Caldwell to steal a race from him. For his carelessness Master Miller was fined $100, as he fully deserved to be.

Admetus, from "Bishop" Poole's stable furnished the shock to form players. In the same race that Admetus turned his form somewhat Owensboro went from good to bad. The last time Admetus started he finished far back in a race at a mile and a quarter which Owensboro won running away, but yesterday going a quarter of a mile further it was vice versa, Admetus winning with ease while Owensboro finished in the rack.

Jim Sellers said he felt lucky before the fifth race and intended to tap himself on his colt Benson Caldwell. He did, getting 4 to 1 for his money and won for himself a lucky bet.

A few days ago the same colt scratched out a victory in the Whiting Stakes and that should be enough luck for one colt in a week. But the Goddess of fortune seems to be with Benson Caldwell, and with sure defeat staring him in the face Miller on Battus took his little nap and in the very last stride Benson Caldwell poked his nose in front.

Battus had been heavily backed, and to those that did not see the finish but instead rushed into the ring to cash their Battus tickets, it seemed that he won off by himself, consequently when caller Sweeney announced the official result, with Benson Caldwell first, there was almost a panic in the ring, and had Miller put in his appearance on the scene it would be hard telling what would have happened to him.

Starter Dwyer had bad luck in getting the field away in the first and third events, and in each instance there was a delay of twenty-four minutes, but Dwyer is persistent and before he would send a field of horses away strung out he would keep them at the post all day. This may be a good system, but it certainly is trying on one that is watching the races.

It is to be noted that in the two races where the delays were that the horses that caused the trouble and waste of time eventually won the purse. Cinera was the offender in the first race and after getting away in the center of the bunch won easily.

Madam Gerst broke up several good starts by refusing to leave the post in the third, but when the word was finally given, the Madam was in front flying and after leading all the way, won with a bit to spare.

Major Mansir, at the false price of 6 to 1, out-gamed and beat the even money favorite Wax by three-quarters of a length for the second race. While leaving the post in this event Prince Plenty got his legs crossed and took an ugly fall, rolling over Jockey Narvaez. This occurred directly in front of the stand and gave the crowd quite a shock, but neither the horse nor jockey was hurt, and the shock was short lived.

Ennomia, driven to the limit, beat Orion a head for the sixth race, with Domsie third. But as the race was run Tillie W., who finished fourth, should have won.

Jockey Jones was fined $10 for impudence by Starter Dwyer.

Jake Marklein will take Garry Hermann east next week in order to fully prepare the colt for the Great Trial Stakes at Coney Island.

The entry of Madam Gerst will be refused at Lakeside and Harlem in the future because of bad behavior at the post.

phone Girl showed a fine order of speed and was never in trouble. Volkman ran a creditable race. Irving Mayor tired at the finish. Virginia T.'s race of yesterday must have dulled her speed. There is no other apparent reason for her poor showing.

Winner—B. f, by Favor—Nydia II.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 24 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; the next four were driving hard. Cinera acted badly at the post and was the cause of the long delay. She finally got away well on her stride, took the shortest route and had considerable left at the end. All the other riders, with the exception of Ross, swung clear to the outside at the head of the stretch leaving plenty of room for Cinera and nothing to contend with. Edith Q. ran a nice race. Scorpolette made up much ground in the last three furlongs. So did Water Alone and Nancy E. all of which made their move after the race was practically over. Lady Seabrook was a false favorite and retired early. Donna Bella is a speedy filly but runs out in her races.

Scratched—17946 Sorrelia, 108.

Overweights—Scorpolette, 3 pounds.

Cinera, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Edith Q., place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Scorpolette, show, 6 to 1. Lady Seabrook, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Cora Moree, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. g, by Eothen—Vol-au-Vent.

Went to post at 3:05. Off at the first break to a good start. Won hard driven; second, third and fourth doing their best. Major Mansir improves with every race. He is a big, long striding fellow that likes a route and came from behind in this race gamely. Wax had no excuses. He was cleverly rated in front, took the shortest route and simply tired when the pinch came. Elsie Venner had Microscope hemmed in on the rail all through the stretch, otherwise the latter would have been third. Both Round O and Louisville tired in the stretch. Prince Plenty, going the route riderless, caused more or less interference. The latter broke well in the bunch, but got all tangled and fell. Narvaez got a bad looking fall, but escaped uninjured.

Scratched—(17998) Satan, 112.

Winner—B. m, by Bishop—Humidity.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 24 minutes. Start good. Won hard ridden; second, third and fourth were doing their best. Madam Gerst broke up several good starts, but when it was a go she was away flying and won all the way. Irma S. had no excuses and ran to the mark. Money Back came strongly in the run through the stretch. Mark Isen in cheap company with light weight up. Crossmolina appeared to have a royal chance while going down the backstretch, but her rider got her into a jam and was obliged to pull up to avoid going down. Miss Liza seems to be afraid of the barrier. It was a poor lot.

Madam Gerst, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Irma S., place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Money Back, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. g, by King Alfonso—Joppa.

Went to post at 4:15. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easing up; the next three behind the winner were very busy. Admetus revived suddenly and made his field look cheap. He is a good horse over a distance of ground. Flick was much more active on the gelding than he was the last previous time he rode him. Holdup, at a false price, ran a good, honest race. Julius Caesar seems to like a route, and under pressure from the three furlongs post home hung on gamely. Benchance appeared like a winner on the far turn, but faded away in the last quarter. Owensboro's race was out of line. He beat Admetus the last time the pair was out. Still the track was muddy that day, and it was another day.

Admetus, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Holdup, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Julius Caesar, show, 4 to 5. Ben Chance, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Owensboro, place, 4 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Br. c, by Esher—Lady Caroline.

Went to post at 4:40. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving to the limit; second easily. Benson Caldwell won another lucky race. In fact it was more of a scratch than his Whiting Stakes win was. Battus had everything beaten at the head of the stretch and then jockey Miller took a nap. When he awoke he discovered that the race was over and that he was second. Battus is a good, honest, consistent colt and was entitled to win. Benson Caldwell is certainly a wonder over a distance of ground and his rush through the stretch, after being badly outrun, was a phenomenal one. Ben Magen beat the barrier but was not good enough for this advantage to do him any service. Icon got badly cut passing the half mile ground. Miller was fined $100 for his carelessness on Battus.

Benson Caldwell, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Battus, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Ben Magen, place, 2 to 5; show, out.

Winner—B. m, by Blazes—Planetta.

Went to post at 5:20. At post 4 minutes. Start good. The first four were closely bunched and driving to the limit. Ennomia was lucky and well ridden. She was tiring fast at the end and barely lasted long enough to win. Orion stopped and then came again in the stretch. Domsie, under a poor ride, ran a good race and finished gamely. Tillie W. was undoubtedly the best and with any kind of a decent ride she could not have lost. Stuart placed her badly during the early stages of the journey and in the stretch rode her into a pocket where she had no chance whatever to get through. The filly is good and can beat this kind at any time. Zacatoso did well as far as he went. Evelyn Byrd seems to be of no present account.

Scratched—17922 Miss Patron, 97; 17950 Nairete, 103; 17773 Isabey, 112.

Ennomia, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Orion, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Domsie, show, 4 to 5. Tillie W., place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Evelyn Byrd, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

DECISION ON APPEAL.

COVINGTON, Ky., Feb. 14, 1900.

On the appeal of F. W. Doss & Co., from the decision of the stewards of the Western Turf Association, awarding purse to the horse Dunblane in race run at Tanforan, December 5, 1899, the Committee on Appeals of the American Turf Congress has rendered the following opinion: "F. W. Doss & Co. complied fully with Rule 70 in making entry of their horse, and, so far as the papers show, in registering with the secretary; but Jennings was not part owner of 'Dunblane' and the entry of the horse in the name of Jennings only was not in conformity with that part of Rule 70, requiring every entry to be made 'in the name of a person having ownership in the horse.' Jennings' interest in the horse 'Dunblane' was in the winnings only, which, by Rule 54 does not constitute him an owner. The protest of Doss & Co. was proper and should have been sustained. The finding of the Western Turf Association is reversed and that a society will pay first money of the purse to said Doss & Co.
E. C. HOPPER, Secretary.
